LETTER DATED 4 MAY 1993 FROM THE PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVE OF BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA TO THE UNITED NATIONS ADDRESSED TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL

In addition to previously submitted reports today regarding Serbian aggression in eastern Bosnia and Herzegovina, we have received new information concerning Serbian troops employing tanks, howitzers, mortars and cannons against the civilian population in the region of Velka Kladusa in the north-west region of the country. The towns of Gradina, Vrnograc, Glinica and Poljane were hit especially hard.

Aggressor forces began the attack at 0415, local time. These attacks originated from the towns of Dvor na Uni and Glina (from United Nations protected areas), in the Republic of Croatia. As of 1630 local time, the offensive was still in progress.

May I ask for your kind assistance in circulating this letter as a document of the Security Council.
